At noon, we leave from our meeting location (see programme for details) in Graz to Southern Styria. This region is famous for its beautiful landscapes, cultural treasures, and typical Styrian delicacies. After a half an hour drive we arrive at the Styrian vineyard „Buschenschank Bockmoar“ located at the Bockberg in Wildon (450m above sea level). We will end the conference day with culinary delights like “Brettljause” and Styrian wine before we head back to Graz at 4pm.
